REVIEW OCTOBER 2025

Privacy Notice (How we use Governors and Volunteers information)

In our Church of England Federation, we take strength in collaboration, yet celebrate uniqueness. As schools, we may be small, but together we encourage children to be the best they can be so they are ready to make their mark on the world. We welcome the child yet embrace the whole family. We celebrate our rural environment yet aspire to look beyond our boundaries. We strive for knowledge and gratefully accept opportunities that come our way to enable us to live life in all its fullness. We all take a pride in our Federation as we follow in Jesus' example.

Perseverance, Fellowship, Courage, Respect, Understanding, Thankfulness

Under Data Protection Law, individuals have a right to be informed about how St Thomas à Becket Church of England Federation (Blackboys CEP School and Framfield CEP School) (referred to as the Federation for the remainder of the document) uses any personal data that it holds about them. The Federation complies with this right by providing 'Privacy Notices' (sometimes called 'Fair Processing Notices') to individuals where the Federation is processing their personal data.

This Privacy Notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working in a voluntary capacity for the Federation, including Governors.

The categories of information that we collect, process, hold and share on Governors and volunteers include:

We process the following personal data relating to those who hold a governing role, or otherwise engage in voluntary work at our Federation schools.

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth, contact details and postcode) given on application forms
- Governance details (such a role, start and end dates and Governor ID)
- References
- Documents to support an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service application, such as copies of Passports, Bank statements, Birth and Marriage Certificates
- Evidence of academic qualifications
- Governor training records
- Employment details
- Information about business and pecuniary interests
- Photographs and videos
- Data about your use of or access to the Federation's information and communication systems
- Special categories of data including characteristics information such as ethnic group, disability/access requirements or other medical information.

Why we collect and use this information

The personal data collected is essential, in order for the Federation to fulfil their official functions and meet legal requirements.

We collect and use volunteer and Governor information, for the following purposes:

- Establish and maintain effective school governance
- Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing Governors' details
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Identify you and safely evacuate the Federation school in the event of an emergency

Perseverance, Fellowship, Courage, Respect, Understanding, Thankfulness

- Undertake equalities monitoring
- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers/Governors who require them
- Preserve the Federation school's history and collective memory.

The lawful basis on which we process this information

Under current Data Protection Legislation, the Federation must identify a valid lawful basis for any data processing they carry out. We process personal data in relation to Governors and volunteers using the following lawful basis:

UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Article 6 (1)

1. Where the data subject has given consent for the processing of their personal data.
2. Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract.
3. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.
4. Processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the Governor/volunteer.
5. Processing is necessary for the Federation to be able to fulfil a public task, i.e. provision of education.

All maintained school Governing Bodies under Section 538 of the Education Act 1996 have a legal duty to provide the governance information as detailed above.

UK GDPR Article 9 (2)

1. Where the data subject has given explicit consent for the processing of special category personal data.
2. Processing of special category data is necessary for obligations in the field of employment.
3. Processing of special category data is in the substantial public interest.
4. We are required to for reasons of "public health", for example during a pandemic.

Please see the Federation's Special Category Data Policy for more information about how we process this type of data. This Policy can be found on our School's websites. <https://www.blackboys.e-sussex.sch.uk/gdpr/>

<https://www.framfieldcep.e-sussex.sch.uk/gdpr/>

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Where we keep records and information containing personal data for a longer time, we do this for archiving purposes in the public interest. We keep these records to preserve the Federation school's history, key events and collective memory. We will provide access to these records for research or statistical purposes, taking reasonable measures to protect the personal data they may contain.

Perseverance, Fellowship, Courage, Respect, Understanding, Thankfulness

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the Federation's use of your data.

Collecting Governor and volunteer information

We collect personal information via

- Governor Application Form
- Business or Pecuniary Interests Form
- Governor Biography
- Governor Attendance at Meetings Records
- Volunteer Application Forms
- DBS Record

Governor and volunteer data is essential for the Federation's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it may be requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with UK GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing Governor and volunteer information

We hold volunteer and Governor data securely in line with the Federation's Retention Policy. This data is stored securely in line with the Federation's Records Management Policy and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your voluntary role with the Federation.

When your relationship with the Federation has ended, we will retain and then securely dispose of your personal information in accordance with the Federation's Retention Policy. A copy of this policy is available from our school's offices.

We will keep a limited and reasonable amount of personal information for a longer time, where it appears in records that are of historic value or it is in the public interest to keep as part of the Federation school's history and collective memory. We store these records securely in our school archives for permanent preservation.

Who we share Governor and volunteer information with

Where it is legally required or necessary (and it complies with Data Protection Law), we may share personal information about you with:

- our Local Authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information, such as safeguarding concerns.
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Ofsted

Perseverance, Fellowship, Courage, Respect, Understanding, Thankfulness

- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as Governor Clerk
- our Local Diocese
- Traded Services purchased through the Local Authority (e.g. Human Resources or Information Governance Support).

We only share data with organisations who have adequate security measures and protections in place.

Why we share Governor and volunteer information

We do not share information about our Governors or volunteers without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Department for Education (DfE)

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities. We are required to share information about individuals in governance roles with the Department for Education (DfE) under section 538 of the Education Act 1996.

All data is entered manually on the GIAS system and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current Government Security Policy Framework.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under Data Protection Legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact: volunteers the Headteacher of the school you volunteer in and Governors to the Clerk to the Governing Body.

Depending on the lawful basis above, you may also have the right:

- to ask us for access to information about you that we hold
- the right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data – this is called 'right to be informed'^{[A1][HF2]}
- to have your personal data rectified, if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- to request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- to restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing)

Perseverance, Fellowship, Courage, Respect, Understanding, Thankfulness

- to object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.
- to not be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by volunteers contacting the Headteacher of the school in which you volunteer and Governors by contacting the Clerk to the Governing Body.

Data Protection Officer

Peter Questier (East Sussex County Council, Information Governance Team. Children's Services)

However, please contact the relevant Federation school in the first instance if you have a query regarding this Privacy Notice or how your information is used.

How Government uses your data

The Governor data that we lawfully share with the DfE via GIAS:

- will increase the transparency of governance arrangements
- will enable schools and the Department to identify more quickly and accurately individuals who are involved in governance and who govern in more than one context
- allows the Department to be able to uniquely identify an individual and in a small number of cases conduct checks to confirm their suitability for this important and influential role.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/national-database-of-governors>

Perseverance, Fellowship, Courage, Respect, Understanding, Thankfulness

Note: Some of these personal data items are not publicly available and are encrypted within the GIAS system. Access is restricted to a small number of DfE staff who need to see it in order to fulfil their official duties. The information is for internal purposes only and not shared beyond the Department, unless the law allows it.

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you are entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they are holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source.

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a “Subject Access Request”. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department’s personal information charter that is published at the address below:
